

Cardston County

Recreation Committee Nominations

Cardston County is currently looking for nominations for a newly-formed Recreation Committee to assist the County with developing recreation opportunities for our residents.

Term: Committee members will be appointed annually.

Time Commitment: The committee will meet in the evenings on an as-needed basis.

Location: The committee will meet at the County office in Cardston, Alberta.

Committee Description:

Cardston County's Recreation Committee will be responsible for advising and making recommendations to Council on issues relating to recreation in the County. The committee will be chaired by a County Councillor, with the rest of the committee made up of resident members-at-large.

To Apply:

If you are interested in sitting on the County's Recreation Committee, please send us a brief letter or email with your contact information, recreation experience, and why you want to sit on the County's Recreation Committee.

You can submit your application in person or by mail, email, or fax to the following:
